Moving a patient from trolley to bed using Protective Sheet Light.

Place the patient on the protective sheet. It is important that the patient is lying lengthwise, along the thread reinforcement. It is imperative that the lifters gather the whole width of the protective sheet at each end, according to attached photograph.

Slide the patient from the trolley on to the bed, still keeping the sheet gathered at each end. Do not lift the patient off the bed or trolley.

